WELCOME TO THE GENIUS BOX

The genius box is a multileveled explorative journey into the paradoxical (genius) ability of all human beings (and possibly all that lives) to create and sustain correspondence between experiences, intentions and actions in a fluctuating universe without objective pointers, i.e. chaos.

The genius box in its totality aims at proving that we can interpret simultaneously ourselves (and possibly all that lives) as a function of the universe and the universe as a function of the above mentioned paradoxical (genius) ability of all human beings (and possibly all that lives) and that this interpretation is the most fundamental learning to be deducted from intentional action based on the experience of change.

It is my hope that the genius box will be of benefit to anyone interested in investigating the metaphysics of learning by doing.

All written material in the genius box is available to study, download and share on www.byebyespacetime.com.
